Message From the South Australian Premier,
Mr. Don Dunstan, to the Association of Apex Clubs
Convention, Alice Springs.

It is with real pleasure that I send greetings to Apexians at your 40th Annual Convention.

We in South Australia are particularly conscious of the value of the Apex Clubs to the community because of the energy and dedication of their members in our State.

South Australians value the Apex movement both for its work in urgent social projects - of which the campaign for "Foundation 41" is the latest of a series of fine examples - and in training the community leaders of the future.

I wish you a profitable and enjoyable convention.

PREMIER.
